OLD BUSINESS

The Board continued the discussion on cleaning up the Apprenticeship program that currently exists.

NEW BUSINESS

Ms. Heeney stated that, in reference to a discussion held at the March 12, 2012 meeting, it would require a statutory change to increase the amount of apprentices that a licensee may train from one to two.

Ms. Heeney clarified that the Board is looking to have more structure and accountability in the Apprenticeship program. Ms. Heeney advised that she would prepare a draft document for discussion at the next meeting.

PUBLIC COMMENT

Mr. Malloy stated that he is aware that even for schools there are students that fail the exam several times and that may be because those people are just not good test-takers.
