DELAWARE HEALTHY COMMUNITIES SUSTAINABILITY WORKSHOP

Delaware Health Care Commission formally invites local communities to attend our public sustainability workshop entitled:
"Sustaining Healthy Communities: A Proposed Model"

This is an opportunity to bring together a broad stakeholder community that is committed to population health in Delaware. In addition, the workshop is an opportunity to help form a public-private sustainability model for Healthy Neighborhoods as well as other key initiatives that address social determinants of health and aligned to improve population health in Delaware for the foreseeable future.

Who Should Attend?

Healthy Neighborhoods Local Councils and Task Force Members, health care delivery systems, community-based organizations, and community stakeholders (both private and public).

Click RSVP to
