   a. DCSAC Member report on applicable exercises

Cyber Storm Update – Georgia Simpson, Middlesex Water monitored as an observer. As an observer, you have access to the Looking Glass tool that disseminates information out into the exercise environment. The flexibility of being an observer depends on the amount of effort individual organizations can prep through TTX-type exercises including design of events and expected response. In the past as a participating organization, they were provided injects to see how the organization responds.

Secure Delaware Update – Sandra Alexander provided information on the virtual format, date, time, topics, and registration steps for the 2020 Secure Delaware event. Anyone who attended last year should have received an email with registration details. DCSAC members will also receive an email with those registration details. More information can be found on the DigiKnow website under events.

Event to be held from 8:30am-1pm. Vendors will be available all day. There will be two keynote presentations and two breakout sessions with four presentations for each breakout session.

8. New Business – None

9. Public Comment –

   By Steve Stillman - Lu did a great job covering DHS/FBI election roles. Only thing I wanted to add - please just continuing to share cyber threat information with myself and Greg ASAP. Solomon, your team has already been doing a great job with this with the various phishing campaigns you've been seeing. Please continue to do so. There will surely be an uptick in activity as we approach election day.

   By Franco Cappa - For more information about CISA resources, feel free to e-mail me directly: franco.cappa@cisa.dhs.gov. More information can be found at https://www.cisa.gov/sites/default/files/publications/cisa_election-security-resources-guide-Sept-2020_0.pdf

   By Georgia Simpson – Can attest to DHS services they provide that was discussed in the presentations
