Topic 3: Story of Recovery- Unity Dinner

Presenter – Bishop Carol Boggerty

- The BHC collaborated with Black Faces, Black Voices to host two Unity dinners.
- One took place on June 24th in Wilmington, DE and the other took place on June 25th in Dover, DE.
- There was a great turnout from the community and community members got a chance to share their stories and their concerns regarding behavioral health and drug use in the state of Delaware.
- Two more Unity dinners are to take place, on July 24th in Middletown, DE and the other on July 25th in Seaford, DE.

Topic 4: Public Comment

- Calvin Davis Jr. discussed the impact of individuals experiencing homelessness in Wilmington, the lack of progress for this issue and its urgency. Mr. Davis advocated for better education of services for this population given the relevance of mental health issues.
- Rebecca Nuttall read a letter on behalf of Domenica Personti. Ms. Personti's letter, addressed her concerns raised by Attorney General Kathy Jennings's letter dated June 28, 2024. Ms. Personti's letter acknowledged that the funds are designated to help those in need and if there is a delay in funding, the individual served may face dire consequences.
- Dave Humes voiced being in favor of approving the funds. Mr. Humes called attention to the POSDC systems that caught potential fraud and the POSDC will try to recover those funds. Mr. Humes highlighted that it is crucial to release the funds as Delawareans. Mr. Humes details of the May 28th POSDC meeting, Mr. Humes discussed that the primary purpose of the funding is to keep people alive and help people, and the funds are needed to continue to save lives.
- Senator Stephanie Hansen voiced concerns regarding the June 28, 2024 letter Attorney General Kathy Jennings sent and the importance of the funding to help people. Senator Hansen highlighted that the letter did not accurately reflect what took place in the May 28th POSDC meeting, according to the meeting minutes. Senator Hansen advocated for a deeper discussion about what is going on behind the letter.
- Peggy Geisler voiced concerns regarding the June 28, 2024 letter from Attorney General Kathy Jennings, and possible collateral damage to the reputations of those who have received POSDC grant funds.
- Jill Fredel provided a letter written on behalf of atTacK addiction, read by Alexia Wolf. Ms. Fredel's letter was in response to Attorney General Kathy Jennings's letter dated June 28, 2024. Ms. Fredel's letter emphasized their organization understands the accountability that they accept when they receive outside funding. Ms. Fredel's letter highlighted how atTacK addiction carefully monitors the funding to ensure it is being spent properly and goes to the correct places. Ms. Fredel's letter noted the intensity of the monitoring process by POSDC and advocated for approval of future funding.
- Senator Eric Buckson advocated for a halt in approving further funding until concerns regarding accountability could be addressed, and requested looking into long-term solutions the funding could support.
- Representative Kendra Johnson advocated for the funding to be released. Representative Johnson noted that the POSDC systems work, and that they do help Delawareans who are suffering.
- Dr. Cheresse Godwin highlighted her support for passing the social work compact bill in Delaware. Dr. Godwin discussed that the bill represents a step forward in addressing the growing demand of social work services and the bill will greatly enhance the mobility and flexibility of workers.
